

ROYAL WARD WEBB

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Royal Ward Webb, son of Bernard Graham Webb and Clara L. Rothe, was born February 11, 1908, in Lehi, Utah.

He spent his youth in Lehi attending the local schools.

He served as a missionary for the Church, in the Canadian Mission from 1927 to 1929. Upon his return he attended the LDS Business College.

He has held positions in civic and church affairs, some of which include, president of the local branch of the Utah Poultry Producers Co-op Ass'n., Delegate to the State Republican convention, Director of the local Farm Bureau, Vice President of the Lehi Riding Club, of which he is now captain, and has been a director of the Lehi Irrigation Company for the past ten years. He was also a member of the Lions Club.

He served in the Mutual Improvement Association, of the First Ward, as a member of the Community Activity committee, Scoutmaster, and Scout committeeman and was a Assistant in the Sunday School for ten years.

He served as High Councilman in the Lehi Stake from 1942 to 1946 when he was called to act as First Counselor in the First Ward Bishopric. This position he held until March, 1947, when he was called to preside as bishop of the First Ward, which position he now holds.

He married Thelma Goates, September 10, 1930, in the Latter-day Saint Temple, and from this union two children were born, namely, Donna and Kenneth.

His occupation is farming and cattle raising.